The scheme was free to join for people over 16 and a list of activities that were covered by insurance was provided. Marc suggested that the Youth Council could become a Mini Timebank, that individuals members could collect hours for in return for other skills for the Youth Council.

Members interested in this service could register online at www.timebanking.org and were required to complete an application form and provide two references.

111. RESTORATIVE JUSTICE - EMMA CALLAGHAN

Emma Callaghan gave a short presentation on Restorative Justice, which was a service that enables victims to meet or communicate with their offender to explain the real impact of their crime. The restorative practice may be used anywhere to prevent conflict, build relationships and repair harm by enabling people to communicate effectively and positively. This was increasingly being used in schools, children's services, workplaces, hospitals, communities and the criminal justice system.

The process involves both a proactive approach to preventing harm and conflict and activities that repair harm where conflicts have already arisen.
