NOTES ON DEMONSTRATING ENTITLEMENT TO WORK IN THE UK

Entitlement to work/immigration status for individual applicants and applications from partnerships which are not limited liability partnerships:

A licence may not be held by an individual or an individual in a partnership who is resident in the UK who:

- does not have the right to live and work in the UK; or
- is subject to a condition preventing him or her from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

Any premises licence issued in respect of an application made on or after 6 April 2017 will become invalid if the holder ceases to be entitled to work in the UK.

Applicants must demonstrate that they have an entitlement to work in the UK and are not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity. They do this in one of two ways: 1) by providing with this application copies or scanned copies of the documents listed below (which do not need to be certified), or 2) by providing their 'share code' to enable the licensing authority to carry out a check using the Home Office online right to work checking service (see below).

- A Certificate of Application, less than 6 months old, issued by the Home Office under regulation 18(3) or 20(2) of the Immigration (European Economic Area) Regulations 2016, to a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence.
- Reasonable evidence that the person has an outstanding application to vary their permission to be in the UK with the Home Office such as the Home Office acknowledgement letter or proof of postage evidence, or reasonable evidence that the person has an appeal or administrative review pending on an immigration decision, such as an appeal or administrative review reference number.
- Reasonable evidence that a person who is not a national of a European Economic Area state or Switzerland but who is a family member of such a national or who has derivative rights of residence in exercising treaty rights in the UK including:-

 - (i) working e.g. employment contract, wage slips, letter from the employer,
 - (ii) self-employed e.g. contracts, invoices, or audited accounts with a bank,
 - (iii) studying e.g. letter from the school, college or university and evidence of sufficient funds; or
 - (iv) self-sufficient e.g. bank statements.

Family members of European Economic Area nationals who are studying or financially independent must also provide evidence that the European Economic Area national and any family members hold comprehensive sickness insurance in the UK. This can include a private medical insurance policy, an EHIC card or an S1, S2 or S3 form.

Original documents must not be sent to licensing authorities. If the document copied is a passport, a copy of the following pages should be provided:-

- (i) any page containing the holder's personal details including nationality;
- (ii) any page containing the holder's photograph;
- (iii) any page containing the holder's signature;
- (iv) any page containing the date of expiry; and
- (v) any page containing information indicating the holder has permission to enter or remain in the UK and is permitted to work.

If the document is not a passport, a copy of the whole document should be provided.

Your right to work will be checked as part of your licensing application and this could involve us checking your immigration status with the Home Office. We may otherwise share information with the Home Office. Your licence application will not be determined until you have complied with this guidance.

Home Office online right to work checking service

As an alternative to providing a copy of the documents listed above, applicants may demonstrate their right to work by allowing the licensing authority to carry out a check with the Home Office online right to work checking service.

To demonstrate their right to work via the Home Office online right to work checking service, applicants should include in this application their 9-digit share code (provided to them upon accessing the service at <https://www.gov.uk/prove-right-to-work>) which, along with the applicant's date of birth (provided within this application), will allow the licensing authority to carry out the check.

In order to establish the applicant's right to work, the check will need to indicate that the applicant is allowed to work in the United Kingdom and is not subject to a condition preventing them from doing work relating to the carrying on of a licensable activity.

An online check will not be possible in all circumstances because not all applicants will have an immigration status that can be checked online. The Home Office online right to work checking service sets out what information and/or documentation applicants will need in order to access the service. Applicants who are unable to obtain a share code from the service should submit copy documents as set out above.

Brief description of premises and the composition of the committee or board of individuals with responsibility for the management of the premises. (See also guidance on completing the form, note 2).

The church hall is used by many different community groups and comprises a main hall, toilets, an office and a substantial kitchen, which has two large hatches that can be opened to serve people in the hall. The main hall can be divided into 2 separate rooms with separate entrances, the main hall also has a raised stage. Currently there are locked cupboards in the kitchens to store food and drinks. Hall bookings are arranged through the Parish Office.

The Parochial Church Council of St John the Baptist, Loughton (the PCC) is the executive committee of the church of England parish of Loughton. The PCC consists of 12 elected officers, plus 2 church wardens and the Rector.

Describe how you will ensure that alcohol sales are properly supervised and what arrangements you have in place (if any) for hiring out the premises. (See also guidance on completing the form, note 3).

From time to time the social team, on behalf of the PCC, arranges events for the church congregation and the wider community, either as fundraising events or events designed to ensure that anyone from the local community can participate regardless of income. The social team comprises at least one member of the PCC. Alcohol sales at these events will be arranged and supervised by the social team. Events are discussed at PCC meetings both before and after, so any need for adjustments in the processes of supervision, set-up, or sale of alcohol which become apparent will be implemented before the next event. We have no provision to allow people who hire the premises to be able to sell alcohol as part of their hire contract. External organisations hire the premises for classes (such as yoga and karate), and individuals hire the premises for private parties, and we do not foresee wishing to allow such organisations or individuals to be able to sell alcohol. Should an organisation that hires the hall regularly, (e.g. the Guides) wish to sell alcohol as part of a fundraising event, then the PCC would discuss whether to agree to this, and on approval, would nominate members of the PCC/social team to supervise aspects of the planning of that event, and the sale of alcohol at the event.

Bar staff will undergo training in the sale of alcohol with particular reference to the prevention of underage sales and drunkenness. We will comply with the licensing objectives set out in our licensing application, including training staff, enforcing a Challenge 25 policy, keeping an incident log and reminding attendees to leave the area quietly.
